CALL TOGETHER SHOP CRAFT MEN; PACT PROBABLE

Continued from page one. The government's temporary restraining order came in for its first public attack...

Robinson declared "lawless courts represented anarchy in its worst form" and charges the "real form" of the constitution were those who "winked at the exercise of unlawful authority."

He's for the strikers. "Candidly, from the standpoint of one out of sympathy with strikes as an enlightened pro-actor for securing settlement of industrial controversies, the documents available for my study establish the conclusion that the leaders in the shopmen's strike have without exception, unphatically and in good faith advocated the interests of their workers."

Strike leaders warned. "I am somewhat hampered by the fact that the government's process servers have had great difficulty in locating the leading officials of shopmen's organizations."
